

CBK Honors its Distinguished Employees for the Year 2015

The Central Bank of Kuwait (CBK) held its annual ceremony on Sunday 30 October 2016 to honor and recognise its distinguished staff for the year 2015 in the new Headquarters in the presence of His Excellency, the Governor, Dr. Mohammad Y. Al-Hashel, senior officials, staff and the honored employees.

This ceremony for the year 2015 is the third since the CBK had launched its Distinguished Staff Initiative underlining the CBK's keenness to continuously honor and appreciate the dedication and commitment of its staff for the part they play in maintaining CBK performance standards and commitment to excellence. It is worth mentioning that selection of the distinguished staff is based on rigorous and an objective methodology with a set of eligibility criteria including performance, discipline, responsibility assumption, aptitude, skills, creativity and initiative.

In his remarks at the ceremony, His Excellency, the Governor expressed his gratitude and appreciation to the distinguished staff who qualified and won for the year 2015. While wishing them to attain more success, he also announced that from now the 2nd floor lobby of the new CBK Headquarters is designated for such ceremony and would be named as "Hall of Excellence" in appreciation to the CBK distinguished staff.

At the end of the ceremony, His Excellency, the Governor distributed the Rewards and Certificates of Merit to the CBK-wise Distinguished Employee, Mrs. Asmaa Suleiman Al-Naser and the Sector-wise Distinguished Employees namely Sheikh Abdulla Jaber Duaij Al-Sabah, Mr. Hassan Nema, Mr. Naser Bader Al-Khalifa and Mr. Hassan Khuder. In addition, a Board of Honor carrying names and photos of all distinguished staff are placed along the "Hall of Excellence" and on the CBK's website.
